Vuurtorenweg 103 in The Hague – Scheveningen:

Now for Sale – A Unique Opportunity!

This stunning, luxuriously finished apartment is part of the new-build project Lumen and offers unparalleled living comfort right on the coast of Scheveningen. With an A+++ energy label, a generous living area of approximately 82m², and a spacious sunny terrace, this home provides the ultimate in seaside living.

The location is ideal: right by the coast in the year-round seaside resort of Scheveningen. The sea, the sand, the harbors, and the boulevard – here you can truly enjoy the coastal lifestyle! Spend your days at one of the many beach pavilions or enjoy water sports. A beach walk is a delight in all kinds of weather. The lively harbor, with numerous restaurants and daily shopping facilities, is just around the corner. The charming shopping street Frederik Hendriklaan ("De Fred"), known for its wide range of shops and restaurants, is only a few minutes away by bike, as are the stores on Keizerstraat.

The Building and Amenities:

Lumen exudes luxury both inside and out! Designed by international architecture firm OZ and the global design studio TANK, the building features natural materials and colors that harmonize with the surroundings.

The building's high-end appearance is immediately evident upon entering the main entrance. The stylish foyer includes eSafe boxes for receiving packages when you're not home. The entrance hall and corridors are adorned with elegant wooden slat paneling and polished concrete-look flooring. There's also a secondary entrance on the seaside, perfect after a walk on the beach.

A separate entrance leads to the well-equipped surf room, featuring personal lockers, surfboard storage, and a shower. On the ground floor, you'll find a shared bicycle storage area, and the garage includes additional compartments for bikes, mobility scooters, and e-scooters. The shared coffee lounge on the first floor, beautifully furnished and complete with a sea-view balcony, offers residents a relaxed communal space.

You can access the apartment on the second floor via elevator or stairs. Large windows flood the interior with natural light. Next to the kitchen is a spacious private utility room with WTW ventilation system, and space for a washer and dryer. The hallway also leads to the guest toilet. Entering the living/dining area, the floor-to-ceiling windows immediately catch your eye, offering a panoramic view that never gets old. From here, you can step onto the south-facing balcony, enjoying sun and unobstructed views throughout the morning and afternoon.

The modern open kitchen with island is equipped with luxury fixtures and built-in appliances. The apartment features one large bedroom. The luxurious bathroom includes a walk-in rain shower, bathtub, vanity unit, underfloor heating, and electric towel radiator.

The entire apartment benefits from underfloor heating and cooling, for maximum comfort!

The apartment is finished to an exceptionally high standard.
