Location & Accessibility

Peacefully located in one of The Hague's greenest areas, right across from the Madestein recreational park — perfect for nature walks, sports, and family activities including a petting zoo. Just minutes away by bike from Loosduinen shopping street, which offers a wide range of shops and restaurants.

Healthcare services are close by: general practitioners are within walking or biking distance, and the Haga Hospital is also easily reachable by bike. Within 10 minutes cycling, you can be at Kijkduin beach or the Ockenburgh forest.

By car, the Lozerlaan (N211) provides quick access to the A4 motorway, leading towards Rotterdam and Amsterdam. Public transport options are also nearby, with excellent connections to The Hague city centre.

You enter the complex through a secure central entrance with mailboxes and an intercom system. The fifth floor is accessible via stairs or elevator. A covered gallery leads to the front door of the apartment.

The entrance hall offers generous storage, including an indoor utility room and two built-in cupboards, one housing the meter setup. From the hall, stairs lead to the main living area, from which all rooms are accessible.

At the front of the apartment is the kitchen. The spacious living and dining area is located at the rear and opens onto the full-width balcony with sunny southwest orientation and beautiful views over Madestein Park.
