Alexander Gogelweg 69, The Hague - Zorgvliet

Refined, single-level living in one of The Hague's most prestigious residential settings

Approx. 195 m² of living space | 5-room apartment | 3 bedrooms | 2 bathrooms | lift | balcony | parking

Situated in the stately and green Zorgvliet district one of The Hague's most desirable addresses this exceptionally spacious 5-room apartment of approximately 195 m² is located on the third floor of the national monument "Zorgvliet".

A home that offers the scale and presence of a house, combined with the ease of apartment living. Thoughtfully updated in recent years including a full renewal of the heating system in 2024 and carefully considered interior improvements in 2025 the apartment has been enhanced to restore elements of its original flow and character, while introducing a lighter and more open feel throughout. The result is a home that balances period features with modern comfort, while still offering scope for further personalisation.

Living & Flow

From the moment you enter, the sense of space and light is clear.

A generous and impressive hallway forms the spine of the apartment, offering not only circulation but also space for a home office or reading area.

From here, the apartment flows naturally into the kitchen recently updated and centred around an island before continuing into the living space. Floor-to-ceiling double doors connect the kitchen and lounge, allowing the spaces to open up when desired.

The living room then leads through original sliding doors into the dining room, creating a sequence of spaces that can be either fully open or more defined depending on the moment.

High ceilings, large windows, and built-in cabinetry reflect the character of the building, while maintaining a clean and functional feel throughout.

Kitchen

The kitchen is modern, well designed, and easy to use, with integrated appliances, a Quooker, and a clean, contemporary finish. It connects directly to the living area via the double doors, supporting both everyday use and entertaining.

Bedrooms & Bathrooms

The three bedrooms are positioned at the quieter rear of the apartment, offering privacy and a sense of retreat.

The master bedroom is generously sized and features an en-suite bathroom with bath, walk-in shower, double vanity, toilet, and bidet, with scope for further refinement if desired.

The second bathroom has been modernised as part of the 2025 improvements and includes a contemporary shower room, serving the additional bedrooms.

The additional bedrooms are well-sized and flexible ideal for guests, a study, or occasional use.

Zorgvliet – calm, green, connected
Zorgvliet is known for its tranquillity, greenery, and proximity to both the city and the coast.
Frederik Hendriklaan and Reinkenstraat offer a strong mix of shops, cafés, and restaurants nearby, while the beach, dunes, and cultural landmarks are all within easy reach.

A rare opportunity to enjoy the space of a house, without the demands of one.
